

Scottsdale Mountain is a master planned residential community of approximately 800 units nestled into a spectacular natural environment characterized by significant natural amenities, drainage corridors, and mountain peaks at the south end of the McDowell Mountains in East Central Scottsdale.

LVA's responsibilities included environmental analysis, master planning, roadway and lotting layouts, spa & tennis club, site design, landscape architecture, project design themes, and architectural review.

SCOTTSDALE MOUNTAIN

Project Information

- 1440 acre community
- 800 units
- 1000 acres conservation area

